In this, the story of the descendants of JOHN CHANDLER (1755-1843), the author does not claim to have a complete and finished genealogy. Those who read this story will realize that it has taken many hours of search in county records hidden away in courthouses, searching in old cemeteries for those markers which will indicate relationship-----and in Kentucky more times than not being disappointed upon finding only a limestone rock or slab marking the resting place of one whose record is wanted. Too, countless numbers of letters have been written, many remaining unanswered as yet. Searching for one's ancestors is a pleasure and an unending search, but, a great deal of satisfaction is gained in compiling a record. It is to be hoped that those who come in contact with this family history will add to and make corrections, and further the search for the earlier Chandlers. In speaking of Green and Taylor counties keep in mind that Taylor county was formed from Green county in 1848, so records previous to that date will be found at Greensburg and not Cambellsville.

It is to be hoped that somewhere someone will send in data concerning the parents of John Chandler---perhaps it will be found in Virginia or Georgia, perhaps somewhere else. From the information given concerning some of his children either state might be the one, but at this time no definite records have been found which would indicate the parents or ancestors of our John Chandler.

Kentucky has many Chandlers, some of which may be of our line. For example, in Washington county, where our John Chandler preached in his early days in Kentucky, the following Chandlers were living at the same time.

1. Robert Chandler listed in Washington County tax list for 1799, has 100 acres of second rate land on Cartwright Creek; 1 male over 21 and 1 male over 16; 3 horses. Robert was bondsman for marriage of Mary Chandler and William Baugh Oct 28, 1797; Name not found in order books of county.

2. Richard Chandler supposedly born in 1775 in Marion county, though settlements were few in number at that time; died _____; married Isabella McNeal (McNeill) April 2, 1804 in Fayette County, Ky. Richard owed the estate of William Chandler, so perhaps there is a relationship. Issue: Louisiana born in 1810 married John Allen Burton Dec 29 1828 in Washington Co; Sallie; Quenton F; Richard L; Edward G; Maria who married Henry F. Nantz Feb 5, 1823 in Washington Co; Susan; Eusebia; Ellen; and Elizabeth.

3. William Chandler served in the War of 1812, enlisted in Capt. John Hamilton's Co., 1st Regiment, Ky Mounted Militia as private on Sept 18 1812, to what time engaged or enlisted:- Oct 30. 1812 married Elizabeth Harrison Mar 24, 1818 in Washington Co., Ky. William's estate settled August, 1826 in which are listed children: Julian, Elizabeth, Thomas H. and Ann. William is a brother of John (listed next). Wife Elizabeth married Elzey Creek Oct 29, 1829 in Washington Co, Ky

4. John Chandler, brother of William (above) served in same regiment in War of 1812; married Sarah Whitticotton Mar 25, 1805 in Nelson Co, Ky. Between Nov. 20 and Dec. 14, 1818 will probated; on Sept. 2, 1830 David Phillips as guardian appointed for Timothy and Sarah Chandler.

ler, orphan heirs of John Chandler. Morton and John Chandler went on his bond. Richard also mentioned as orphan heir of John Chandler.

5. James Chandler estate administered July 28, 1828 and inventory taken Aug. 20, 1838 in Washington Co., Ky. married Patsy Edmondson N.v. 1, 1817. Left children of Patsy and Polly; perhaps others.

In Lincoln Co, Ky there are three marriages of Chandlers:
Joseph Chandler married Louise Abraham Feb. 10, 1837; Timothy Chandler married Cynthia Abraham April 8, 1844; and Rankin Chandler married Katherine Worthington, Dec. 26, 1793.

In Franklin Co., Ky there are two early marriages: Samuel Chandler married Sidney Weits Mar 21, 1831; and William Chandler married Julia Harrod Feb 13, 1827.

In Scott Co., Ky. Willis Chandler was guardian of daughter Sally Ann and reports he has settled estate with Sally Ann she being of full age May 25, 1848 (Guardian Book 1, p 33).

Will be glad to exchange data on any of the above Chandlers or any Chandlers. Send any corrections or additions to

Walter R. Sanders

In this genealogy the generations are denoted by numbers as follows:

1st generation: JOHN CHANDLER
2nd generation: 1-7
3rd generation: 10-99
4th generation: 100-499
5th generation: 500-999
6th generation: 1000- and on

FIRST GENERATION IN KENTUCKY

JOHN CHANDLER

The name of JOHN CHANDLER is found many times in Virginia, Georgia, and Kentucky-----where our own John Chandler first lived is not known. From census records of his children we find that some were born in Virginia, some in Georgia; perhaps these are correct.

"The Chandler lineage is traced back to staunch English origin and the original progenitors in America were four brothers, one of whom settled in Virginia, where the paternal great-grandfather of the subject was born (John Chandler). He figured as founder of the family in Kentucky whither he came at an early day and established his home in Green County." (Johnson's HISTORY OF KY, p 1368f).

From Miss Marie Chandler of Campbellsville, Ky, we find the same except that the four brothers came to Georgia, one of them moving to Virginia and then coming to Kentucky; this was John.

From J.H. Spencer, 1886, HISTORY OF KENTUCKY BAPTISTS, Vol 1, we find:

"John Chandler was a number of years pastor of Good Hope Church". He was a member of that church at a very early period, if he did not enter into its constitution. Though far advanced in life, he appears to have been set apart to the ministry, in this church, subsequent to 1802, at which time he was clerk of Green River Association, and was not a preacher. He was, at that time, 46 years old, and evidently a man of much prominence in the Association. He was clerk of Russell's Creek Association, for its organization in 1804, till 1808 when (in 1809) he was chosen moderator of that body, one year. From 1810 he served it as clerk ten consecutive years. He probably began to preach about 1810 and was ordained pastor of Good Hope Church in 1811."

In the original minutes of Pittman's Creek Church (in possession of James Robinson, lawyer of Campbellsville, Ky) we find various lists of church membership. The original church was a 30 x 30 feet log building located just north of the present Pittman school in the middle of the field. In the list of signers of the constitution of the Church of Christ on Pitman's Creek, May 21, 1802, as given in the August 9, 1928 issue of the Western Recorder (The Filson Club, Louisville, Ky) the following names appear:

JOHN CHANDLER

ELIZABETH CHANDLER, his wife (known because this name appears after their daughter Elizabeth marries)

Sallie Crowder, daughter, who married Philip Crowder in 1797

PATSEY CROWDER, daughter of Philip Crowder and his first wife, Susan Parish

REUBEN CROWDER, son of Philip Crowder and Susan Parish.

In 1806 plans were made to build a new church and in the subscription list JOHN CHANDLER was the first to sign the list with eight (8) gallons of whiskey. The list of September, 1813 included the above people plus

ABNER BOTTOM, who in 1808 married Elizabeth Chandler, daughter of John and Elizabeth Chandler.

The list of May 6, 1812 states there were 139 members and of the Chandlers listed the following:

ELIZABETH CHANDLER

CATY CHANDLER, daughter of John and Elizabeth

BETSEY BOTTOM, daughter of John who married Abner Bottom, 1808

LUCHIDA WRIGHT, daughter of John who married Sampson Wright in 1808.

BETSEY CHANDLER, wife of Horatio Chandler.

About 1812 JOHN CHANDLER, Joseph Cogdill, and Thomas Skaggs helped to ordain Joel Gordon to Old Brush Creek Church, Green Co. (Spencer, Vol 1, p 307). In 1814 John Chandler and David Elkin probably ordained David Thurman into Good Hope Church (p 333). In 1816 John Chandler was a member of Stewart's Creek in Washington Co., but continued to serve Good Hope Church as pastor until 1826, when he resigned on account of old age, he being about 71 years old. He lived at least eight years after this, and continued to preach, as he had strength and opportunity. He is still remembered with much respect and affection by the aged (Spencer I).

In 1817 Samuel Harding was ordained by JOHN CHANDLER and Isaac Hodgen became pastor of Pitman's Creek, which church was removed to Campbellsville, (P 247).

John Chandler was clerk of Green River Association in its third annual meeting held at Mill Creek in what is now Monroe County, July 31, 1802 (Spencer, Vol II, p 106). In Sept 8, 1804 eleven churches broke away from Green River Association and Russell Creek Association formed; met in the annual meeting July, 1804. In Sept 8 met at Pittman's Creek meetinghouse, Taylor county. John Chandler listed as licentiate preacher in 1804 (Spencer II, p 193). In minutes of Green River Association of July 1802, Pitman Creek sent John Chandler as its representative (Spencer II, p 193).

A partial survey of Green County, Kentucky tax lists shows that JOHN CHANDLER was not present here in 1795-1796-1797.

1799, May 30:	Listed as Commissioner for Green County, signed books

From Horatio Chandler's Bible record we find the following items concerning his parents, John and Elizabeth Chandler:

"aged father died Saturday 11 o'clock A.M. December 9, 1843, being 88 years old and 14 days." Also, "my poor aged mother died Monday morning between 4 and 5, June 23, 1834."

Both very likely are buried in the same cemetery as Horatio and his family, though no markers with their names are to be found. However, in the same row as Horatio and his second wife are two limestone blocks, which may be his parents. The cemetery is located almost half a mile west of the Salem Church (north of Campbellsville) on the old John Chandler land.

Only one has an inscription on it: "William Shrieve, born July 22 _____, died March 21, 1838".

SECOND GENERATION

The line of SALLY or SARAH CHANDLER is a numerous family inasmuch as her husband, Philip Crowder, had married two times previously and had children by each marriage, which makes three sets of half-brothers and half-sisters, all with the same father, but with different mothers.

PHILIP CROWDER, born near Petersburg, Virginia, May, 1759, was a true patriot. An elder brother was drafted for the service, but as he had a family, Philip volunteered to serve in his place. Philip Crowder was present at the surrender of Cornwallis; pensioned while living in Sangamon County (Illinois) in 1833 (Walker, Mrs. H.J., REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS BURIED IN ILLINOIS, p 135). Pensioned for services as private and sergeant in Virginia militia. The 1834 pension roll, April 4, 1833, for service as private and sergeant in the Virginia Continental line (Lineage Book of DAR, V 153, p 87). A military stone is at his grave.

Philip Crowder married Susan Parish in Virginia in 1782 census is listed in Mecklenburg county, Va, family of three whites. Five children were born there and then they moved on pack horses, camping near a company of about forty families, to Green county, Kentucky. Armed men stood guard around them for protection against the Indians. (Sangamon county History (Ill). Mrs. Susan Crowder died in 1794 in Kentucky.

In July, 1802, Philip Crowder, a licensed preacher represented Rolling Fork Church (Baptist church on Clear Creek). Next year the church name was changed to Otter Creek and in 1804 church entered into Russell's Creek Association (Spencer, Hist of Ky Baptists, p608) In the original list of signers of the constitution of the Church of Christ on Pittman's Creek (Green Co, today Taylor county), May 21, 1802 is to be found the following names:

Sallie Crowder (Sally Chandler, wife of Philip Crowder
Patsy Crowder; Philip Crowder's daughter by 1st marriage
Reuben Crowder, (son of Philip Crowder by 1st marriage

The names disappear from the lists of 1812 and 1813.

Apparently in 1807 the family had moved to Hardin county, Kentucky and from there they moved to Sangamon county, Illinois, arriving in November, 1830 along with Elisha Sanders (Sarah Crowder's nephew) and Chandler Crowder (son) and his wife Lucinda (Sarah Crowder's niece). Philip and Sally Crowder settled three and one half miles southwest of present Springfield. Philip died May 2, 1844 (Horatio Chandler's Bible states he died May 2, 1843) and is buried at the southwest corner of the Illini Country Club in a poorly kept family cemetery. A government marker marks his resting place. Philip Crowder died intestate and Washington Crowder gave bond of $200 to settle estate. Thomas William also signed bond. Filed Jan 20, 1845 (recorded Book E, p 464, Sangamon county (Ill) court house, File 586).

Sarah Crowder died Sept 11, 1844 (Horatio Chandler Bible record states Sept 12, 1843) and is presumed to be buried beside her husband in the private cemetery. Papers show that Thomas William received "compensation for traveling to Kentucky and back to attend the obtaining the legacy to Sarah Crowder, 41 days at $1 per day, filed Dec 4, 1845". Heirs in paper mentioned are Thomas William and wife Polly, John C. Crowder; William Crowder, children of Chandler Crowder deceased; children of Horatio Crowder deceased; Washington Crowder; Albert G. Crowder; Abraham Crowder.

"Received of Thomas William as administrator of Sarah Crowder, deceased. . . for . . . and advising him to the collection of legacy in right of said Sarah Crowder from estate of John Chandler, deceased filed Feb 12, 1845." (Sangamon county court house). Signed Sept 11, 1844 by Aaron Harding (of Taylor county, Ky).

"I, Horatio Chandler, executor of John Chandler, deceased, do hereby certify that W. Thomas William as administrator of the estate of Philip and Sally Crowder deceased hath this day received of me the full amount to which the heirs of Sally Crowder deceased are entitled to under the will of said John Chandler deceased it being $653.50. Signed: Horatio Chandler, Feb 18, 1845." (Record on file 612.) In selling of Sarah Crowder's property William Crowder bought the Bible.

THIRD GENERATION

ISSUE OF PHILIP CROWDER and SUSAN PARISH (1)

10. REUBEN CROWDER, born _____ in Virginia, married Nancy Michael in Kentucky. Reuben is listed only one year in Green County (Ky) tax lists from 1795-1809, that is in 1803 when on April 23rd he is listed as 1 male over 21, no land. His name is also to be found on original list of membership of Church of Christ on Pittman Creek. Reuben and family came to Sangamon county in 1825 and there he died Sept 8, 1835, near Springfield (possibly buried in Philip Crowder cemetery). (Much of data on this line comes from various SANGAMON COUNTY, (Ill) histories).

SECOND GENERATION

2. HORATIO CHANDLER, son of John and Elizabeth () Chandler, was born Oct 20, 1778; died Oct 10, 1857. He rests in a family burying ground on his father's land just southwest of the New Salem Church road on the Willard Kendall place. From his will we know that his parents, John and Elizabeth Chandler are buried there too. (See will of Horatio Chandler). From Spencer's HISTORY OF KENTUCKY BAPTISTS Vol I, 1886, p.337 we find the following write-up:

"Horatio Chandler was the son of John Chandler and succeeded his father in the pastoral care of Good Hope Church in 1826. He was a fair English scholar, and was endowed with a good intellect, and wielded a ready pen, but possessed a very moderate speaking talent, and did not succeed very well as a preacher. He maintained a good moral character, and was an enterprising business man in his private affairs, in the secular affairs of his denomination, and in the business department of Christian work. He was thought to have his heart too much set on money-making for a preacher. He succeeded his father as clerk of Russell's Creek Association, and served in that capacity 18 years. He did not live to be old."

In the will of one John Bottom written May 29, 1802 in which Merry Sanders Bottom, a son, is mentioned, Horatio Chandler was one of the witnesses. (Mercer Co; McAdams, KENTUCKY PIONEERS AND COURT RECORDS, p 71). In the early tax records of Green County, Kentucky the first appearance of Horatio is in 1800.

In March, 1822, HORATIO CHANDLER, John Chandler, and Johnson Graham and Isaac Hodgen ordained John Hodgen who became first pastor of South Fork Church, (Spencer, Vol I, p 247)

Horatio was acting justice of peace on Aug 17, 1814; received his license to preach Aug 1, 1817; ordained April 5, 1818, "called to and accepted paternal care of Good Hope Church", became a "member July 8, 1826 having taken letter from Pitman north November 1825." "Removed to my new place October 1826; removed to new house Nov. 25, 1827". (from Horatio Chandler Bible Record".

Russell's Creek Association met at Pitman's Creek, Sept. 18, 1830. John Steele had been appointed to preach the introductory sermon, but was not permitted to preach on account of his having adopted the views of Alexander Campbell. John Harding was chosen moderator, and HORATIO

CHANDLER, clerk (Spencer, Vol I)

HORATIO CHANDLER aided in ordaining John Miller, Dec: 2, 1836 into Rolling Fork Church, LaRue County, (Spencer, Vol II, p 208). Horatio Chandler, Johnson Graham, D.S. Colgan and John Miller ordained David Miller August, 1838 at Rolling Fork Church, LaRue County, (Spencer, Vol II, p 207).

From the Bible record of his first marriage to Elizabeth Bottom which took place Dec 9, 1800 we find the exact date of marriage as no record has been found in Green county. Elizabeth Bottom was born Jan. 15, 1784; died April 1, 1824. To them were born:

If my sons Joseph, Samuel & Francis any one or two or all of them shall act as my Executor or Executors they are to give bond and security according to law. If at any time my wife shall not be able to control her dower slaves she is hereby authorized to sell such slave for cash in hand to the highest bidder- one third of the such slave she may retain and two-thirds goes to my estate should it be the case that the majority of my children shall be of opinion that it would be most advisable to sell any part of my estate on a credit of six months instead of cash in hand such credit may be given by securing sufficient security. In testimony whereof I herewith affix my seal and set my hand this 12th day of May, 1856.

ISSUE OF HORATIO & ELIZABETH (BOTTOM) CHANDLER (2)

25. JOHN BOTTOM CHANDLER; son of Horatio Chandler and Elizabeth Bottom was born Sept. 29, 1801; died Aug. 25, 1859, (buried at Campbellsville cemetery, Campbellsville, Ky). His name is to be found on many deeds and in many records of Taylor county (Ky). In Deed Book 1 he was one of the justices of the peace who in March 1, 1848 bought the lot known as the "public square". On deed dated Dec. 21, 1849, as a justice of the peace, he was a member of a group who bought another lot in Campbellsville where the jail now stands. John B. Chandler was one of a group to be ordered to build a jail for the county under the date of June, 1848. In the December 1849 meeting he was a member of a committee to "make a plan for a kitchen and smoke House for the Jailer.". In the November term of 1854 John B. Chandler was one of the justices of the peace "appointed to hold County Court and Quarterly Court for this county in case the Presiding Judge of the County fails to attend such courts." At the meeting of December, 1854 he "appeared in court and was sworn according to law."

John Bottom Chandler married Mary Ann Smith Jan. 21, 1828 (Bible record); (born Feb. 17, 1811; died Mar. 4, 1893, Campbellsville cemetery). In her will signed May 3, 1889; proved Mar 16, 1893 in Taylor County she names daughter Laura J. Davis wife of John P.; son John; children of deceased son William; Cary A. and Tyler; and daughter Mildred E. Barbee.

In the 1850 census of Taylor county, (Ky) the family is listed as follows: John B. Chandler, age 49; male; occupation merchant; property valued at $932; born in Kentucky. M.A., age 39, female; William F., age 17, doctor; L.J., age 16, female; John H., age 11; M.H., age 4, female.
